We propose to ad I to the matter ntained in the Register for 1856, the Election Returns for last November, by towns—the new Apportionment Bill sent and Equalisation of Property for 1956 -the Vote of the Union for President-besides other valuable statistics for reference, the whole making a pamphlet of about 120 pages.

Price for single copies, 25x; a liberal discount made to those who buy to sell again. ROPUS KING & CO.

To Advertisers.

We shall have a few pages for advertisers in the Wisconsin Almanac and Annual Register, which we hope to issue about the 1st of January. As the pamphlet will be one of great value for frequent reference, it is an excellent medium for advertising. Those who desire to avail themselves of it will do well to make immediate ap-

The great stone building which has stood for 20 years as a monument of some body's folly, has been put in complete order us a public house. Somo $6,000 has been expended in making the landing accessible to boats at all times, and, altogether, Cassville has wsumed new life, and bids fair to become an important town.

CUSTOM House Reports .-- As we expected, some of our Chicago neighbors are making a great ado over the "falling off of business" at this port, as shown by the Custom House reports, taking particular care not to state, what they very well know, that no sort of reliance is to be placed on those Reports. But we never expeet common fairness from that quarter.

THE COUNTRY PRESS-We copy to-day a capital article from the Albany Koening Journal upon the necessity of sustaining the country press. It agrees so entirely with our own views that we give it a place with pleasure; and we are glad to know, from the prosperity of most of the country press of Wisconsin, that the people appreciate the truths contained in the article, and support liberally, as they ought, their local press.

Fortunately for the politics of a Democracy, this relation of a controlling Metropolitan Press can never be established over the country papers of New York. BIG SPRINGS, KAMSAS,
Nov. 30, '56.

Yonder goes old Mr. Porterfield, wending his solitary way to Lawrence. He is one of the fifteen prisoners just released from Tecumseh. He is an old man of three score and ten. His hair is white and long, he wears spectacles, and his dress reminds us of the dress our fathers of the Revolution wore. His step is quick, although his form is beat. He has a pligrim's staff, and like those veterans whom Webster addressed on Bunker Hill, he seems to have "come down to us from a former generation." But what must be his reflections as he plods his way to the "reboicty?" He served under Jackson at the battle of New Orleans. He fought for his country then. He helped expel a foreign invasion.—What more or lessid he do for Kansas? Times have changed, and he is only "an old fogy" now,

Fire 68 Main Strutt.—Stran Fire Escense —
On Saturday night at eleven o'clock, thames were discovered issuing from the rear of Messes. Allen & Co.'s. Watch and Jewelry store, No. 117 Main street. The whole rear of the building was in flames when the fire department reached the place, and the appearance of affairs was of a serious character. The upper part of the building was occupied by the inflammable stock of a wood engraver, and various buildings enowed thickly around, as the ground there is density covered with business structures. The occasion was one that demonstrates the superiority of the steam that demonstrates the superlosity of the steam aboys the band fire engines, for the night was intensty odd, and with band engines the water would have frozen in the hose; but all conquerg steam, directed by a set of steady and experi-enced firemen, quickly subdued the conflagration Cincinnati Gazette.

First Passenger Trais.—Yosterday at 1 o'clock A. M. Conductor Price ran his first passen, sor train of cars across Rock Riyer, over the now bridge in this City, on the M. & M. R. Road. It was a beautiful sight, and although such bridges are regarded as eye-sores rather than as ornsmental, yet in this instance it is not so. The passenger, as he crosses the river; catches a fine view of Main Street—at all times busier than that of any other street, in any other city in the State; while the "Fron horse" puffing and blow-ing as he runs over the waters upon his narrow track, looks and moves almost "like a thing of life."

RAILROAD COLLISION.—A terrible collision took place on the Rock Island Railroad on Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock, between a Fooris freight train going out from this city, and a Rock Island freight train inward bound. The collisian took place about three miles from this city, and is attributable to the carelessness of the Engineer on the Rock Island train, who, being behind took piace about three mines from the City, and is attributable to the carelessness of the Engineer on the Rock Island train, who, being behind time, and neglecting to wait at the point where the Peoria train, demolishing the two locomotives to the latter, and the locomotive attached to the Rock Island train, and smashing up some twenty five freight cars loaded with flour, lumber, &c.—

The engineers and firemen saved themselves by jumping. The Rock Island train, we are told, had no head lights, and the Peoria train, for this reason, did not discover its approach until a mement before the collision.—Chicago Bem.
